LIST OF CIA ACHIEVEMENTS

1953--The neutralist Mossadegh government, in Iran, is overthrown. This secures oil leases (40% of it in 25 year leases) for three U. S corporations; notably, Gulf Oil. Kermit Roosevelt, CIA coup leader, helps instate General Zahedi, a World War II Nazi collaborator. In 1960, Kermit Roosevelt became a vice president in Gulf Oil.

1954--The government of democratically elected Arbenz of Guatemala was overthrown in a CIA-supported right-wing coup. The following year, Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, director of the CIA when the Guatemala venture was being planned, joined the board of directors of the United Fruit Company (Arbenz, prior to the coup, had attempted to nationalize a portion of United Fruit).

Late 1950's--The CIA, in complicity with Michigan State University Task Force, train Diem's police in terror tactics used against Buddhist and neutralist minorities in Saigon controlled areas.

1961--CIA, with the aid of Cuban mercenaries, invades Cuba and is repulsed by Cuban Militia. CIA and U. S. government executive branch attempts to hide U. S. involvement in Cuba from American public; but, like the invasion, the attempt fails.

1963--Cheddi Jagan, Premier of British Guiana, wants independence from England and labor law modelled on the Wagner Act. Jay Lovestone, AFL-CIO foreign policy chief and recipient of CIA funds, acting independently of labor rank and file, arranges and eleven-week dock strike that brings Jagan down, ensuring that the state will remain British Guiana, and that any workingman wanting a better than 50¢ a day wage is a dupe for Communism.

1966--November 17, the annual convention of the Anthropological Association, in Pittsburgh, hears a report by its former president, Dr. Ralph A. Beals, in which, according to the New York Times (13 November 1966), he charges that scholars are offered generous sums by the Government to serve as intelligence agents during their work abroad and that some intelligence agents were posing as anthropologists. He cited several cases where the State Department or universities had to cancel projects when the connection was exposed.

Feb. 1967--The disclosure that since the early fifties the leaders of the NSA (National Student Association) secretly received millions of dollars to finance activities in student movements abroad, mainly in African and other developing countries. Much of this work fell clearly in the espionage category. No doubt, the CIA is in part responsible for the conspicuous silence of students on world affairs in the 1950's. It is also worth noting that the CIA was not corrupting innocent youth but the most sophisticated and knowledgeable college students. It was not playing upon naivete but upon greed and opportunism.

In John Gerassi's The Great Fear in Latin America: "... we do know--from the highly documented The Invisible Government by David Wise and Thomas Ross as from Allen Dulles' (former director of the CIA) The Craft of Intelligence--that the CIA fabricates phony communist 'documents' and has plotted against popular regimes everywhere from Iran and Laos to Guatemala and Ecuador."

THE SDS OPPOSES ALL FORMS OF MILITARY AND PARAMILITARY RECRUITMENT AND EXPLOITATION OF THE UNIVERSITY AND ITS STUDENTS. WE FEEL THAT THE CIA IS A MAINSTAY IN A REPRESSIVE FOREIGN POLICY WHICH PROLONGS THE HOSTILITIES OF THE COLD WAR AND RETARDS DEMOCRATIC ADVANCEMENTS TOWARD ELIMINATION OF POVERTY IN DEVELOPING NATIONS.

SDS WILL HOLD AN INFORMATIONAL PICKET IN STRONG PROTEST TO THE CIA'S INTERVIEWER, ON THE SECOND FLOOR OF ODERHOLTZER HALL, ON MONDAY OCTOBER 30 AND TUESDAY OCTOBER 31, STARTING AT 8:30 AM. WE ENCOURAGE YOUR PARTICIPATION!!!
